Dear friends, old and new

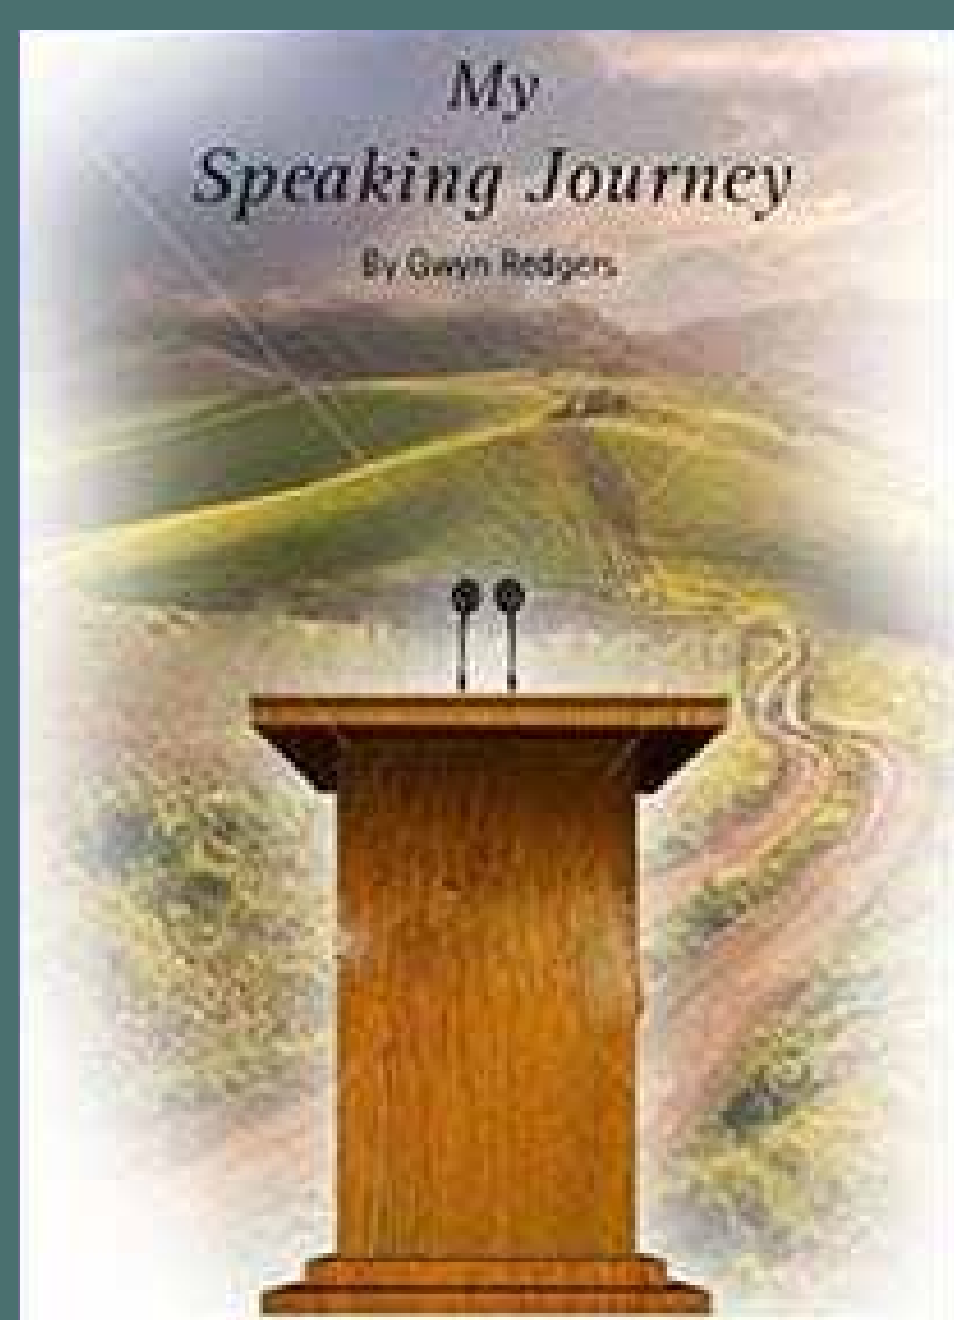

Living a full and long life, travelling in this country and elsewhere, enjoying the practices of speaking and debating – and now sharing these experiences – is of great importance to me. I invite you to read and enjoy.

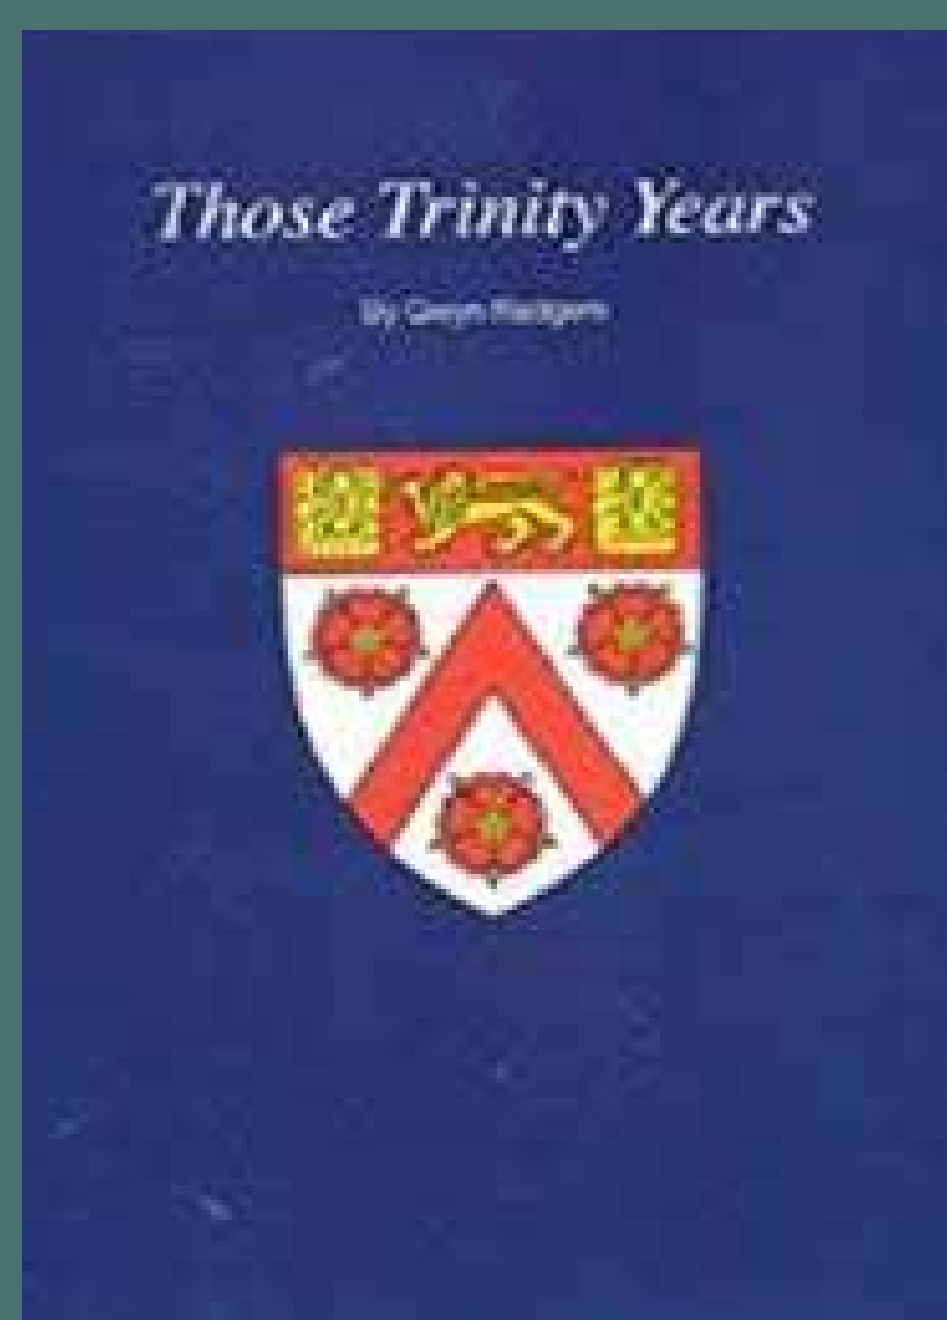

Turning memories into memoirs

Memories can be one of the great pleasures of life. Moreover the longer you live (and I am now over 80), the richer and greater the store. But how can these pleasures be shared?

One answer is by writing. That is the challenge of turning 'memories' into 'memoirs', of whatever kind. It has been – and continues to be – an enjoyable challenge. These three published books are the result.

Trips and travels

Motoring holidays have long been the source of interest and pleasure. In this section I recount the story of two month-long trips that I took during the summers of 2013 and 2016.

In addition, I had the opportunity to be part of a debate training team which visited Rwanda in 2014. I include a brief report, and also a film that was taken of the journey.

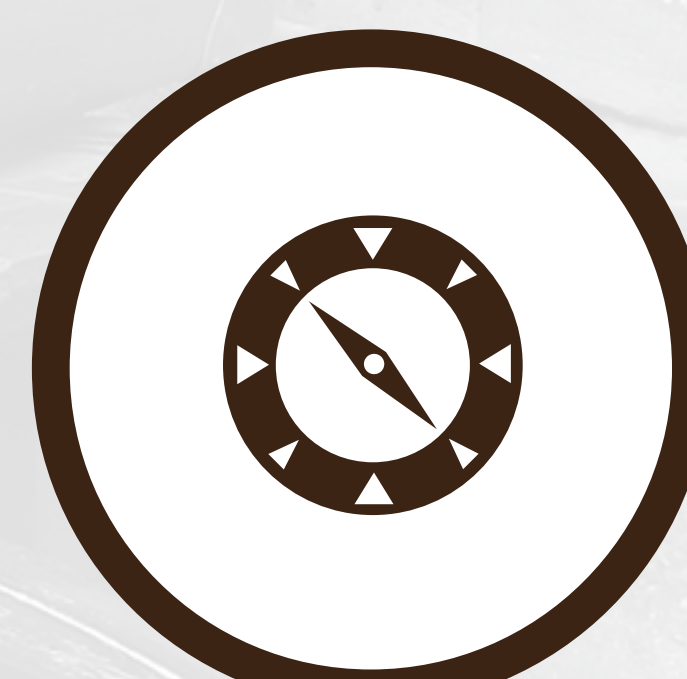

Please look and enjoy.
